

A surreal advertisement for Yves Saint Laurent Women's Fragrance. The background is a shimmering, iridescent blue liquid. Three models with long blonde hair and intricate silver jewelry are positioned around the central perfume bottle. Two large hands, one from the top and one from the right, hold the bottle. The bottle is rectangular with a black cap and a gold 'YSL' logo. The brand name 'YVES SAINT LAURENT' is written in large, black, serif letters across the middle.
